The Master of Advanced Study (MAS) degree in Criminology, Law & Society is designed to meet the needs of working professionals and traditional students by providing educational access and flexibility in an online format. It is well suited to meet the goals of individuals who are seeking leadership positions within their organizations in a variety of fields including but not limited to criminal justice, legal, and social service communities. As the first online degree in the UC system, the MAS program has proven that high quality and cost effective graduate education can be delivered successfully in an online format.
